INVESTMENT STRATEGY

Vericimetry US Small Cap Value Fund is a no-load mutual fund seeking to provide a specific asset class risk-reward exposure combined with long-term capital appreciation. The Fund invests in a wide and diverse universe of marketable US small-value stocks using a market cap weighted approach. The Fund's managers employ a pre-determined "Enhanced Index" investing strategy designed to outperform the Russell 2000 Value benchmark over long term time horizon.

The Fund's small-cap universe is comprised of US securities with a market cap that is often less than 10% of the total market capitalization. The Fund's value universe is comprised of US securities with multiple well-established value factors such as high book-to-market, low price-to-earnings, low price-to-operating cash flow, and low price-to-sales.

The Fund is currently available through an exclusive group of registered investment advisers who seek to benefit from the small and value risk premiums on behalf of their buy-and-hold clients.
